

Is the Temperature Right?

- Medications stored in the refrigerator are to be kept between 2° - 8°c
- Monitor the fridge temperature regularly
- Exposure to temperature out of recommended range may result in loss of effectiveness of the medication

March 2008